Gentiane du Sommet

Gentiane du Sommet is a rare example of a historic 19th-century Gentiane liqueur—traditionally sipped with seltzer water as an elegant pre-meal “aperitif.”

Crafted in the classic French Alpine style, Gentiane du Sommet begins with fresh, wild-harvested gentian root, coarsely ground and fermented to draw out its bold character. This fermented root is then expertly distilled into a high-proof eau-de-vie, capturing the purest expression of the Gentiane’s Alpine terroir.

Like a fine wine, the resulting Gentiane eau-de-vie is aged to develop greater aromatic depth and flavor complexity—an uncommon step that sets Gentiane du Sommet apart from modern interpretations. Once matured, the Gentiane eau-de-vie is reduced with pure filtered water and just a touch of sugar added to harmonize the distinctive earthy bitterness and floral undertones.

Enjoy Gentiane du Sommet simply over ice with seltzer, or let its alpine essence shine with grapefruit soda, lemonade, or other bright citrus mixers. It also offers a sophisticated twist in classic cocktails—an uplifting, lighter alternative to traditional amari or bitters.
